He said:

"She makes too much steam—you want to hang the monkey wrench on the safety valve."

I looked him on the spot and had him buried at my own expense.—Mark Twain in Galaxy.

French Correspondence.
AMIENS, Nov. 12th, 1870.
France is still for war, and Germany till Paris is occupied, equally so. The former by continuing the strenuous hopes (not by any quer the invader, at least to so weary him, that he will be glad to moderate his terms, to cry quits; and the latter feels only a permanent peace can be secured, in the thorough subjugation of the enemy. Neutrals have done their possible—have intensified the strife by their humane interference, and for the future it is hard to see how they can their good offices unless invited, or to enforce their wishes by measures stronger than circular letters. The vetoing of Paris was the touch-stone in the overtures for an armistice. Von Moltke would not consent to part with so certain a means of bringing the proud capital to a sense of its situation.

He is quite well aware, that so long as the

is no parliament to deal with, he cannot ratify any peace. The French note this difficulty also. I do not think the "no surrender" fever is as strong as heretofore in France. It appears to me the people are heartily tired of the bloodshed and ruin. The general delight with which the armistice was hailed as the harbinger of peace proves this; the contented air of private persons with whom you converse attests it. But Paris decrees its slaughtering must go on, and her wish is law yet in the provinces; the day this dependence is destroyed will be a bright one in French history. There are numbers who would vote for peace, I had almost written any price, to-morrow. France is the fountain-head of petitesites. Could diplomacy for once be so frank, as simply business like, as to demand from Prussia the exact amount of her demands, and put it before Franco entire, except or reject—to beat back the German pretensions in the attempt, Prussia has never presented her "little bill," and not to Paris is determined not to allow the world to turn aside its gaze from her—it is all she asks in her misery—not to be forgotten in her adversity, as she was ever remembered in her joy. Meis may surrender 'by fam-or by treason; Verdue, which in the bloody days of Violeville and Gravelotto, was a noble confederate, fell after nearly a month's siege, and was taken by the Paria. Thicooville and Mootmied, as fall provisions as is eggs or meat, must fall at due time, falling external relief. Not Victor Emmanuel's entering Rome, or whose prediction that the paving stones the streets of Madrid will shout Viva la Eublique in case the Duc d'Aosta enters Kieg. Even Exeter Hall forgets its Honess and Dr. Cumming's Vials. The univer is absorbed by Paris.

And what is the capital doing? Rapidly approaching to the times of 1793, and it is not surprising to find that the price of a passage in a balloon has risen fifty per cent, despite the chances of being hunted by the Uhlans, and if caught, sent before a Court-Martial for serially breaking the blockade.

expecting Paris would remain political calm, her friends were but whistling birds being out of the wood. She has had a "day," and a very serious one, and since it is on the first step which casts, those who know the capital best, could not now predict that no more internal struggles will occur. Putting

The friends of order justly oppose it, the speculators of disorder advocate it. The institution had its origin in 1793, and was composed of delegates elected from the several quarters or wards of Paris. Instead being a municipal body it became a political one, and controlled the affairs of the nation. It was the freest of Parliaments—all were equals and brothers. There was no President, every member was such, the voting was free, but no one dared put his bullet in the urn without first publicly exhibiting it. The Emperor Julius Cæsar, he conceded the est

...of such a body, they would be the first victims. Rochefort was the only advocate of the measure. The Committee of defence would allow the election of War Mayors and their adjoints, but nothing more. Florens, Blanqui, Puyat & Co., seized the present occasion when the citizens were ex-the commune question, calculating upon its capacity to be successful. The national guard they commanded marched to the hotel de ville, where the government was deliberating and held the members of it prisoners. Followed by a crowd a new government was named. Tibaldi was objected to because he was an Italian, but was retained to represent the "universal Republic." Rochefort, who refused to speak, he was insulted, told to be off, and finally was rescued by the reporters. He "was a child of the people," "no, you are an aristocrat." He is a count by birth, when he alluded to the mission of Thiers, it was unanimously resolved to hang that aristocrat.

Dorlon, minister of public works, was a favorite with all parties. He was proposed a president of the new Committee of Public Safety, but it was objected to have any president—such violated the holy principle of equality. Victor Hugo, who desired no office was as unpopular as Rochefort. The crowd subsequently made its way to the Council chamber, and burst upon the Cabinet like a monstrous wave. Trochu sat pale, but unmoved—Favre, indignant but resolute. They refused to resign to force. The popular general Toulouser addressed the voters as "my children," but the children gave him the "flic" (1) resolving to send him at once before a Court Martial. Garnier Pages fainted, and to revive him it was proposed to throw him out of the window. Flournois arrived--dressed in the highest style of military theatrical, art

COUNTY COUNCIL.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Council met at 8 o'clock, p.m.

PRESENT.—His Honor the Mayor, Messrs.

Rosen, Rowe, Armstrong, White, Anderson,

Hudson, Flint, Emery, Cummings, Diamond,

Daly, Skinner, Connel and Cross.

The minutes of the previous session were read and approved.

THE HONORABLE DEBENTURES.

The Warden read a communication from Stewart and Lumsden, solicitors for Mrs.

J. B. Lewis, the owner of the debentures applied to have taken up, and offering security to the County against further demands for the payment of said debentures.

The Warden recommended that the debt be paid, if the security is sufficient.

Mr. Cummings held the same opinion.

Mr. White moved, seconded by Mr.

Hudson, That the Warden and County

Solicitor be and be authorized to settle with Mr.

Lewis respecting the said debentures.

CARRIED.

The Committee appointed to consider the question of canal, reported recommending the appointment of two members of the Council to cooperate with the appointed to answer the questions of the Commissioners.

The report was adopted.

On motion of Mr. White, seconded by Mr. Rowe, the Warden and Mr. Cummings were nominated as the said members.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A petition from Irwin Ray, asking com-

penation for two sheep killed in a broken circuit.

The petition was referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

UNPAID LAND.

A petition was presented from James

Stewart, praying that certain money which he had paid for land should be repaid to him, as the land had been purchased from the late Hon.

O. R. Murray, be returned.

The matter was laid on the table, as Mr.

Bateman's procedure was incorrect.

WAYS AND MEANS.

The Council went into Committee on Ways and Means, Mr. P. J. Diamond in the chair. Mr. Daly moved, seconded by Mr.

Diamond, That several orders given by Mr.

Bradshaw, the contractor for building O.

Brin's bridge, amounting in all to $103.84

be paid.

Mr. Daly, in moving the resolution, explained that the $2,000 vote at the last meeting of the Council did not meet the expenses connected with the bridge. He hoped no objection would be taken to the motion, as his object was to pay the men who had worked so hard on the bridge.

THE WARDEN'S REPORT.

The Warden opened the motion, as it was establishing a bad precedent, and he had seen the men and had known that they had been paid without getting their pay. He said that he was not going to guarantee them nothing.

Applications of the men for their money were made by Mr. W. J. Diamond, who was at Cold Creek bridge.

After some further discussion, the motion was put and lost.

INDUSTRY AND TRADE.

The Warden brought up the matter of the claim of W. H. Panton, Esq., Registrar, for $2,000 for indexing the registry books, as required by statute. The Registrar said that the money was not only necessary for him to go to the County Treasurer and draw the money. He (the Warden) was convinced that the Town had been proportionate share of the expense, and quoted the statute to that effect. He had written to Mr. Bell the County Solicitor, on the subject

a month ago, but had not received a letter, and he was not sure why the first had not been answered. He was sure that the claim was just, and he would recommend that the claim be paid, and until the matter had been further looked into.

Mr. McManis and Mr. Panton held that he had to look to the County alone for payment, and the County might look to the Town.

The matter then dropped.

COMPENSATION FOR SHEEP.

The petition of Irwin Ray, of Tyndington, for compensation for the loss of two sheep which had strayed into a culvert and been killed, was considered.

Mr. White, in explanation of the prayer of the petition, that the culvert in question was situated on the unfortunate nine miles of gravel road which Tyndington had within the year. It was opposite

Mr. Ray's gate, and while he was doing the statute labor, the gate had been left open and the sheep had got on the road and went into the culvert, out of which they were not to get, and they died. It was only after the smell from their carcasses had become offensive that Mr. Ray found them.

H. ROSENBERG,

The Upper Crust

"Oh! what a quality outside of the bath!"
The woman who makes the most beautiful to get up in the morning.
to the upper crust more than the under is very aware.
Not only perfume, make-up, and man,
but called in the papers "redhead queen".

But look through this paper and you'll find that
Are ever more than a few pages.
More to be seen, more to be seen.
Part of the paper is the upper crust and the Then often get short of hair, and cash
A man of deception is always a lover,
Whoever he's found;
And life is a book in a shiny cover,
Most splendidly bound.

Each leaf has an edge of gold, but within
It is dark with the inscription of folly and sin.
If strangers you meet at the wedding or party,
Be sure you meet the upper crust.

Your conduct, hair, make-up, and party,
On short upper crust—
O'ye'll learn that not only the upper crust
On outside much better than what is within.

You will find the same spirit pervading all
The high and the mean— (class)
Like a red hot coal that develops the masses,
Over ragged masses.

As a potent force boom any baron's desire,
And gutter boots lead on to a desirable home.
The greatest breeding in full circulation,
More brilliant than the sun.

There is a counterfeit talent and false reputation,
Most far to be found;
And counterfeit wealth and a glittering end,
All show without, like the rich upper crust.

But give me the friend that can be a wonder
And truly tough,
Whose upper crust proves very much like the
And seller are tough.

Let us win what we can of the great art,
But plod in their own track of the great art.
The great advantage arising from the introduction of the steam for the lighter work of the farm, and especially for cutting chaff, are beginning to be far better understood by farmers generally than they used to be.
Since the introduction of the small Vertical Engines for these purposes, the old ground system of horsework has been gradually disappearing, and many farmers have proved that it is not only more convenient but more economical to cut by steam than by horse. The Vertical Engines (those for instance, exhibited by Messrs. Ashby, Jeffery, and Luke, of Stamford at the late trials) are found to take up very little room, consume very little fuel, and come at a low price, and they are made on such a simple plan that they do not require a skilled engineer to manage them. One of these engines will drive a full-sized steam power chaff cutter, and it also capable of driving a 38-inch steam mill for grinding barley, Indian corn, &c., Prices and full particulars of these Vertical Engines, also of their steam and hand-powered chaff cutters, are strongly recommended by the following list of testimonials, which may be obtained by application to Messrs. Ashby, Jeffery and Luke, Stamford, Lincolnshire—Mark Lane, London, Eng.

TO THE WEAK, THE WORN, AND THE WARY, the Editor of the British Recorder says: "We can most heartily recommend the Parian Syrup, a potent remedy of the most valuable nature, for the weak, the worn, and the weary, having experienced its benefits. It possesses all the qualities claimed for it by LORD CHURCHILL—We wonder how any one can undertake to undertake the business of this country. The efforts of any individual for the relief of the society or the relief of mental or physical infirmities will be sooner or later appreciated. Look for instance at the acquisition and universal approval of the Great Boschendorff Remedy and Pills, for the cure of diseases of the lungs, the blood, and the blood. For sale by all Druggists."

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Russian Purchase of Arms in America.

Invitations to the Conference.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—It is re-affirmed to-day that the Russian Government has ordered from America one hundred millions of dollars and a million of machine rifles.

New York, Dec. 10.—A special London despatch says—

A telegram has been received by the London Times, from Berlin, which states that the official invitation to the Conference in London on the Eastern question, have been despatched to the respective Governments who signed the treaty of 1854.

Great Britain.

Mr. Gladstone and the Pope.

Stormy Weather—Wrecks.

Frightful Explosion.

Anglo-American Relations.

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter to Mr. Edmund Davis, M. P., for Queen's County, Ireland, acknowledging the receipt of a petition praying for the intervention of England to behalf of the temporal authority of the Pope. Mr. Gladstone says—

"The duty of the Government has not been to interfere with any of the changes in Rome since the election of Pius IX, but it has been to make the best provision for the protection of the Pope's position in the Papal States. In the question Italy occupies a position of special importance, and the Government has endeavored to protect the Pope's freedom and maintain his dignity."

New York, Dec. 10.—A despatch from London, dated the 9th, says: The press to-morrow will have over Mr. Gladstone's note concerning the protection of the Pope's position, and the views of traditional English policy since the restoration.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The "Times" to-day has a striking and conciliatory editorial on the subject of the "Alabama" claims. It says no country for the trouble caused on England in consequence of the depredations of the Alabama, but it is a settlement of the claims not merely because they are just, but for the purpose of inaugurating an era of better feeling and closer unity between the United States and Great Britain.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—The Morning Post says no hope of better relations with the United States, as it says the best Americans avoid or are driven from political life, while many in England believe that political influence and occasional courtesy is shown in actions supposed to be unfriendly to England.

LONDON, Dec. 8.—The weather is disagreeable. Much damage has been done to shipping. The steamship "Celtic" has gone to pieces and is a total loss. The bark "Anker" of Liverpool, for Philadelphia, has been lost at sea. The captain and eight seamen are missing.

A frightful explosion occurred at a carriage factory in Birmingham to-day. Twenty hands were reported killed and thirty wounded.

A committee recently formed in the city for the purpose of obtaining the best possible security for the completion of peace and unity between the United States and the United States, has determined not to take no public action.

leg miracle, in the Department of Jura to wit, to circumvent them (Garnish) himself to get a glorious example of being a working man. He never consents to any work in prison to inspect the ground. The Germans must feel somewhat ill at ease. They no longer frighten the people their most powerful weapon hidden. Nationalistic and the means to have several places between the Teton and the latter having to retire from the south of Montauk and Meville in the north, to support the legislature before it is not even hopeful. Then again there is the great battle yet to come off between the army of the Lord, strongly reinforced, and commanded by General Bourke and Dr. Aurelio, and Prince Frederick Charles and his allies. If the French win, I think there will be a rush all over the country to make sure the Germans, regardless of conditions. Win or lose this battle, the French will continue to fight on. I sometimes think they begin to like the bloody work, and receive new arms from a faith that ultimately they will pull through.

The Paris papers just to hand inform us that Aurelio has been taken from the Prussians after dreadful slaughter. Not a prisoner and not a slave, and while the personal has yet been made visible to the naked eye. The Prussians are lying around the Department, feeling their way. Man tuffled must find his advance north with the fortunes of Waterloo on the 19th. In the end, however, our fate is sealed. Even the Russian difficulty to become one of paper warlike, it seems. Business has not yet gone to the matter, so France loses one chance of getting to her side her Cimon ally—not now lower.

Morning Despatches.

The War in France.

Napoleon Heard From.

Fecap occupied by Germans.

Opening of Prussian Diet.

New York, Dec. 15.—The "Herald's" special from Wilhelm of the Rhine, says: Napoleon is in perfect health. He has declared he will return to Paris by military power, that the people four times approved the election, and they alone have the right to restore him. He further declared that with his own knowledge the Duc d'Angoulême has for years persecuted the Orleans line to enter the army; hence the opposition of the officers to the restoration of the Empire.

London, Dec. 15th, midnight.—It is reported that Prussia's warships 21 miles north-west of Havre, has been occupied by the Germans.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The Session of the Prussian Diet opened to-day. The royal speech, which was read, admits that the success of war is due to the patriotism of the people, and promises that the budget will be submitted at the earliest moment possible.

American Despatches.

False Reports.

More Failures Reported.

Defrauding the Government.

Postal Telegraph Bill.

New York, Dec. 15.—The State of the Union "Dutch Princess," which arrived on Wednesday, states that the report of the fall of Marcellus, of the shooting of Dr. Hernandez, and of the success of the revolutionists under Falgar and his subsequent assassination in a case, which appeared in various morning journals yesterday, was untrue in every particular.

Another failure is reported of a prominent man in the liquor trade. The loss made by this firm is said to have arisen from the defrauding of others in the trade who are defrauding the Government of the revenue.

An eminent German banking firm is said to have been detected in defrauding the Government on matters of exchange.

Washington, Dec. 15.—The Select Committee of the Postal Telegraph bill, a meeting for the purpose of hearing an argument from Mr. Hubbard of Boston, in reply to the speech of Mr. Wadsworth in favor of the Postal Telegraph Bill. Hubbard has a scheme of his own, which is for the Government to build an opposition line to that of the Western Union Company. He traveled over the same ground that he did last winter, making the same points, and coming to the same conclusions, and that all other schemes besides his own are unwise and impracticable.

Much amusement is created here at the very positive statement of Dr. Polk, concerning the death of the "Independence Bell" to the effect that the President has written an autograph letter to the Emperor Alexander, tendering him the aid of a fleet of war vessels in case of war. The statement is pure fiction. Neither the President nor his department have any such letter, or anything which could be construed or twisted into a coloring for such state news.

Afternoon Despatches.

The Very Latest.

DESPATCHES TO 4 P. M.

Prussian Successes Contradicted.

Prussians withdrawn from Havre.

800,000 French drilling at Bordeaux.

Bombardment Postponed.

Prussian Government sends the Great Powers.

London, Dec. 15.—The capture of Laferre is contradicted. General Faidherbe passed without attacking it. Several engagements occurred in that neighborhood recently, which were generally favorable to the French.

The report that the Prussians had occupied Contre-Montre-Clair and Bonhomme on the Loire is confirmed. The "Monitor" says the French have been reinforced at all points.

Havre, Dec. 15.—The Prussians have entirely withdrawn from this city and the country, and the roads are open again to Toul.

It is said that three hundred thousand French are drilling at Bordeaux.

Bordeaux, Dec. 15.—A provincial correspondence of this city says: The proposed bombardment of Paris has again been postponed, because such a course at present would be detrimental to the military operations. The most object of the war and interests of the army at this juncture, are paramount considerations unquestionable. At the right moment the same offense of the investing army will take action and will fully insure immediate and future success.

The Prussian Government declares that the great powers of Europe concerned themselves in the Luxemburg matter the face of her plain declaration of neutrality in the interest of France, therefore, returns to itself full freedom for her future course.

MONTREAL TELEGRAM TO THE INTELLIGENCER.

MONTREAL, Dec. 15, 1870.

Paris—demanded less active and more slighting only, with real belief to report.

Only—no insurrection, purely military action.

York heavy and dropping; some offers for 800; other good nominal.

Gold—fresh arrivals in fair demand at 90 7/8 to 91 1/8.

Laid quiet at late rate.

Foreign—unchanged.

Cotton—unchanged.

Grand Junction Railway and the County of Peterboro.

A short time since we made a note to effect that the County Council of the County of Peterboro had rejected the By-law granting a bonus of $75,000 to the Haliburton Railway, and $75,000 to the Grand Junction Railway, from the proceedings of the Council, which we copy from the Peterboro Review of the 16th inst. It will be seen that the By-law was not rejected, but the third reading postponed until the next meeting. The proceedings of the Council we give in full, as follows:—

"A special meeting of the County Council was held on Wednesday, 14th instant, to consider the By-law granting a bonus of $75,000 to the Grand Junction Railway, and $75,000 to the Peterborough and Haliburton Railway.

The Warden stated the object of the meeting.

"Moved by Mr. Miller, and seconded by Mr. McDonald,—That the By-law granting $75,000 to the Grand Junction Railroad, and $25,000 to the Peterboro' and Hallabarton Railroad, be a third time and passed, and alleged, and was the action of the Council.

"Moved in amendment by Mr. Chase, seconded by Mr. Walton,—That the By-law granting a bonus to the Peterboro' and Hallabarton, and Grand Junction Railway Company having been found illegal, and very grave doubt exist as to whether an Act can be obtained to legalize the same, owing to a majority of the Council being in favor of the same, and the same being a violation of the Charter, and owing to the Municipality of the said town being represented through the death of its late Mayor, being over ill, no meeting of Council.

"Mr. Walton, although basing his amendment on illegality, took the ground that as the Act is not in violation of the Charter, the By-law, as it stood, ought to be allowed to stand.

"Mr. Chase, moved, and Mr. Miller seconded, that the By-law be amended, so that the same should be a third time and passed, and alleged, and was the action of the Council.

"The By-law having been submitted to the people he considered that the Reeve was bound to carry out their wishes, as representing Council and not each Municipality.

"This view was maintained by Messrs. Mil Oleg and Rogers in effective speeches.

"Mr. Armstrong addressed the Council at length, pointing out the illegality of the By-law, especially in the matter of route.

"Mr. Brown said the people in his town were generally in favor of giving the bus route to the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, subject to the By-law as it stands. Many voted for it to show their willingness for Halliway, but under the belief that this particular By-law would not pass into law. He stated that a more northerly route would be acceptable, more worthy of the name of County Railway, and thought that no particular should be indicated in the By-law.

"Mr. Grover was here called upon to add the meeting. Having stated that he did not come to Peterborough for the purpose of addressing the Council, he commenced to point out his objections to the By-law. The declaration of the Council was then read, laying down the line should be left to the Railway Company, who would be responsible for the crossing. The alteration of the date for voting, (which had snuffed at the date of the meeting, and the date of the appointment of the Warden as a Director) were also objections. He took exception to the appointment in the renewed charter of the Grand Junction Railway, of a majority of directors in Belleville, so as to give the Council influence to that town, and concluded very ably by stating his anxiety to see the Grand Junction and Haliburton Railways

"The amendment being put, those in favor were Messrs. Choate, Armstrong, F. H. Brown, Hunter, Walton, Moher, McCarthy, Buck.—9.

"For the original motion, Messrs. M. Garbutt, Bizzard, Brown, Clegg, Conger, Rogers, M. McDonald.—8.

"The business of the Session being over, the Warden left the Chair."

LOOK OUT FOR STORMS.

"Remember, remember,
The 22nd December,"

Saravats are everywhere considerably excited over a remarkable eclipse of the which occurs on the 22nd inst. Per we might express ourselves a little comprehensively, and say that every is everywhere excited over the co event, for it promises to be of more ordinary importance. Not since 1661 such an eclipse occurred, and another not occur again for centuries to come. It cannot be wondered at, therefore, if public attention be forcibly directed to what will take place on the above date. An occurrence that requires such an extended cycle, in order to produce the desired result, is certainly deserving special notice. The Sun, the Moon, several large planets are to be in a direct line with our earth, and their combined influence will produce a tremendous revulsion of the elements. Earthquakes, hurricanes are foretold, and a lamentable destruction of life and property feared. The source of attraction is the moon, exposed, said, fortunately for us, this case falls many thousands of miles away. The southern part of Africa, portions of Sp and Fogel, and a great part of the Atlantic ocean will come under the influence. The people of Canada may experience something but they need entertain no fears of fatal results.

In 1693 there were extensive subterranean and submarine convulsions, and several cities in South America were destroyed. Canada was then in a primitive state, and the only European settlement was at Quebec, then called Stadacona. Here the earthquake was severely felt, shaking the buildings, and causing much terror. The trees awayed to and fro, augmented by a heavy wind, so that the Indians declared, in their figurative language, that they were all drunk. The water of the St. Lawrence, below Tadoussac, became of a deep green color, and vessels lying anchor received powerful shocks through their cables. The extent of territory over which this convulsion was felt was about 170,000 square miles. It has always been Fighting in other Localities.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Advice received from Paris to the 17th says that the army and citizens were still calm, resolved and confident of success. Provisions are plentiful and there have been no disorders.

The first despatches announcing the German victory at Nuits on Friday last were exaggerated. The number of prisoners captured was 6,000, instead of 8,000, as at first reported.

The news this morning from the German Army of the North is important. Mantouffil is again marching on Havre, and with a much larger force than before.

The French report that they have taken measures to resist.

An engagement is reported to have already taken place at Bolder, only seven miles from Havre, in which the French were victorious and the Prussians advanced checked.

The Prussians have bombarded Maryle, a small town in the Department of Aisne. Thence they marched eastward to Verrier.

The Prussians on a reconnaissance from Amiens recently attacked the corps of General Faidherbe. They were repulsed with considerable loss.

The Prussians have evacuated Pargny and Beaumont.

There has been some fighting at Bray. Twenty-five thousand Germans are at Mont Dier.

How Denial may be Done

I am satisfied that there are great many farmers who would do some good work at denials if they knew how to begin, and if they could find the time. Many farmers do most of their work, but they only bring a little by the day at the busy season and of course pay a round price for it. If they would only by the month they would do much more of the most important work of the day laborers. As to pay for the day laborers, I have to say that the day laborers by charging a price for the day's work, my advice and practice has been to hire help at a round price, when there is no regular farm work pressing, I commence a day. I begin at the lower end and work up bill, keeping the bottom nearly level. I get a depth of four feet, then keep it no less than that depth, letting the water out of behind me. This ditch digging I keep at a sufficient work, as it can be taken up at any time, and there is nothing else to do, and can be left as really. If I have any baying to do, and do not wish to start a machine, I can do it for me to my man. I can go to your kitchen work on the job, or if it is too wet to do, or I have not finished some job and do not wish to do it, I can do it for me. We will do in that order I will close this.
